

Jerry Wigwam
Service Committee Chairman

Hello, there. Mr. Wigwam. Your first name is Jerry, but I guess you already know that. I am your scriptwriter, and I have no name. I invented you, and I'm glad you're here. Really.

You are the Chairman of the Chippewa Chapter Service Committee. That means you (and your committee) plan and lead all service projects of the Chapter. Your job is very important. since the council expects the OA to be a service organization.

Jerry, there is some SECRET INFORMATION you need to know about as you prepare your report. There are 2 camps in this council. You like one (Camp Mississippi) much better than the other one. In fact, you think the other camp is so bad that you NEVER SAY ITS NAME. Once in a while, you refer to it very INSULTINGLY as "Camp Woolen Underwear" or "Camp Pink Panties" but you never call it by its proper name. This other camp is a disgrace, and no more work is needed on it EVER, in your opinion.

As a result of your feelings about this, you plan all of the Chapter's service projects at CAMP MISSISSIPPI.

The Chairman of the Chapter Camp Promotion Committee (his name is Bobby Saddleblanket) likes that "other camp." Bobby thinks that anybody who wants to go to Camp Mississippi is stupid. Of course, he also doesn't like the fact that YOU plan all of your service projects at your camp. Bobby refuses to help. You know this hurts your service projects, and you think it also hurts the Chapter's Camping Promotion efforts as well.

When you give your report, you should announce that the next service project (make up a date) is planned for Camp Mississippi. Try to get everybody in the room to agree to help. ASK BOBBY SADDLEBLANKET TO HELP. You need his support.

YOU WILL BE CALLED ON BY BILL ARROWSMITH, CHAPTER CHIEF.
Please see the AGENDA for the timing of your part.

You should use your imagination, Jerry Wigwam. You're gonna have to, since I am a lazy scriptwriter and I don't have much of a script" for you to read. So YOU make up something really good. BUT THIS IS IMPORTANT. You need to have this service project, and you can't afford to have the Chippewa Chapter vote it down. So, use your imagination. Make up a committee report. Tell them about the Service Project coming up at Camp Mississippi. And remember to never say the name of the "other camp" which you think is a DISGRACE. Good Luck and THANKS, Jerry Wigwam.
(It sure has been nice typing this.)

How to Win This Game

Each player has different objectives in this game. To win, you may need to cause someone else to lose. There will be PRIZES for WINNERS, and nothing not even polite recognition for losers.

If ALL of these things happen, you will WIN. If not, you LOSE.

Check off here the things that happen

1. You must follow the instructions in your package as well as you can. This is one you can control, and your personal opinion is all that counts. You should check this one. All you need to do is DO YOUR BEST to act out your part.

- _____ 2. The Chippewa Chapter must decide (by vote) to have a service project at Camp Mississippi. There must be a motion and a vote, and the vote must be MAJORITY IN FAVOR of doing a Chapter service project at Camp Mississippi.

- _____ 3. The Chippewa Chapter must decide [by vote] to have a Summer Chapter Fellowship. Further, they must decide to spend $1,000.00 for this event. If they vote to have the Fellowship, AND if they agree to spend at least $1,000.00 on it, you win this check-off. Otherwise you lose.

After the meeting, if you want a prize, give this sheet to CONTROL.
